To be Sold,

A pleasant situation for a mechanic, in Greenfield, between 30 and 40 acres of most excellent land, 5 or 6 of which are under good improvement; with a good dwelling house thereon. Said farm lies by the side of full river, within 10 rods of a grist mill and saw mill; on the roads to Montague and Gill, and partly on the roads to Northfield and Brattleborough. The place is suitable for a blacksmith, clothier, shoemaker, and tailor. For further particulars apply to Daniel Whipple.

On the premises.

Greenfield, March 10, 1799.

All who are indebted to the subscriber may rest assured, that as this friendly admonition greatly tends to his happiness, the subscriber shall discharge his just duties.
